

Announcing the UBC Global Masters
Postgraduate competition:

Starts
October 2018
Enter a team today!

Helping postgraduates achieve their personal career aspirations

Powerful reasons why you should participate:

- Returning to family business – Global Masters will help you add value
- Business start-up – UBC GM puts you in an entrepreneurial mind & skill set
- Research IP to sustainable business – UBC GM helps develop business skills
- Corporate or public-sector role – UBC GM develops employability skills
- Team-building / Networking – UBC GM helps build relationships with other PGs
- Postgrad recruiters – UBC GM provides an opportunity to engage with world class companies

The UBC Global Masters is:

a simulation-based competition over two rounds specifically designed to develop the enterprise & employability skills of high-calibre postgraduate students. Working in competitive teams enables peer to peer learning and interaction.

World-class business simulations give the opportunity to run a series of businesses enabling the development of an 'entrepreneurial mindset' and provide a real test of each team's ability to drive business performance.

Plus an opportunity for personal and professional development that is intellectually challenging and practically relevant, equipping participants with essential skills.

Information on-line at:

www.ubcworldwide.com/global-masters

For further details please contact: